Preservation of paintings of Churches in Old Goa

1227. SHRI JOHN F. FERNANDES: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of the fact that ancient wall paintings on the Churches at Old Goa, are systematically being destroyed due to their non-maintenance by ASI, which forms part of antiquity and International Heritage;

(b) the number of such paintings which are defaced/destroyed by ASI by applying ordinary paint coat over it;

(c) whether any foreign help has been offered to repair and maintain them;

(d) if so, the details thereof; and

(e) Governments response thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND DEPTT. OF CULTURE) (KUMARI SELJA): (a) The ancient patintings on the walls of the centrally protected Churches, in Old Goa, are being properly maintained & preserved by the ASI. However, due to high humidity in the area some mural paintings, due to their inherent characteristics, are adversely affected by the climate.

(b) The ASI has not defaced/ destroyed any painting by applying paint over it. On the Contrary some paintings that were covered by lime wash have been scientifically exposed & preserved.

(c) Yes, Sir.
